

Code of Conduct and Behaviour at Work Policy

1. Policy Statement

- a) Rozi Roti Foundation is committed to creating and maintaining an environment which is professional, responsive, safe and free of any form of unlawful or inappropriate behaviour. The Code of Conduct is to set down the general principles and standards, which govern the professional activities and conduct of staff, consultants, vendors, partners and Board Members of Rozi Roti Foundation, thereby maintaining a high level of professionalism.

Rozi Roti Foundation staff are required to maintain the highest standards of integrity, objectivity and accountability in the performance of their duties to a standard of conduct that supports the organization's mission, vision and values and that does not knowingly violate Rozi Roti Foundation policy.

This involves ensuring that their conduct:

- Is never influenced by personal gain or advantage that results in a risk or detriment to Rozi Roti Foundation
- Does not give rise to suspicion of improper motives
- Is in keeping with Rozi Roti Foundation's policies and procedures

Examples of prohibited behaviours include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Falsification of a resume, employment application, attendance records, or other organizational records.
- Fraud or embezzlement.
- Accepting gifts or money for personal use.
- Misappropriation of organizational or intellectual property or other confidential information.
- Violation of professional and ethical standards applicable to a position in organization.
- Possession of firearms or any other weapons on organization premises at any time.
- Participation in terrorist groups or activities as defined by federal regulations.
- Negligently disregarding safety rules or common safety practices.
- Any form of discrimination or conduct within the workplace that can reasonably be considered as harassment, whether based on race, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, citizenship, national origin or ancestry, disability or veteran status
- Display of violent behaviour and/or physically assaulting any individual while representing Rozi Roti Foundation.
- Insubordination (unwillingness to carry out a directive from a manager or supervisor and disrespectful behaviour toward a manager/supervisor/any other colleague).
- Other serious offenses that, in the judgment of Rozi Roti Foundation's senior management staff, cause a disruption of the organization.
- Any violation of Rozi Roti Foundation's policies

- b) Hence, all employees and those of Partner organizations who are in a relationship with Rozi Roti Foundation have an obligation to ensure their personal conduct and behaviour is at all times professional and lawful and does not reflect adversely on the reputation of the organization. A duty of mutual trust and confidence is implied in all contracts of employment and staff is required to adhere to Rozi Roti

Foundation's Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct is designed for the guidance and protection of staff, but a breach may well result in disciplinary action, even dismissal and in cases so requiring, criminal prosecution.

Our expected standards of behaviour are based on Rozi Roti Foundation's values and aimed at creating a positive work place culture. If in doubt about obligations under the Code of Conduct, staff should seek advice from their Line Managers or the Human Resources team.

2. Purpose

The purpose of the policy is to set minimum standards by which all staff is expected to abide.

3. Commitment

- a) To adhere to this Policy in every way.
- b) Ensuring regular attendance and punctuality at work. Absenteeism and tardiness disrupts work flow and causes undue hardship for other employees.
- c) Maintaining regular work hours and informing their supervisors in case of unplanned absence from work.
- d) Keeping their appearance and presentation clean, tidy and appropriate for the work place.
- e) Performing their duties to the best of their ability with care, competence and efficiency.

4. Harassment and Discrimination

Rozi Roti Foundation ensures equal employment opportunity without discrimination or harassment based on race, colour, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, marital status, citizenship, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by law.

"Harassment" for the purpose of this policy refers to a wide spectrum of offensive behaviour aimed at bothering, continually causing worry to another person, in the course of his/her employment/consultancy in a mala fide manner.

An employee under this policy is guilty of harassment as defined above of another person if:

- He/she him/(her)self or through some other person threatens or does any act which is intended to substantially harm the person threatened or any other person with respect to his/her physical or mental health, stress, dignity or safety
- He/she him/(her)self or through some other person causes or threatens to cause bodily injury in the future to the person threatened or to any other person;
- To cause or threaten to cause physical damage to the property of another person;
- To subject the person threatened or any other person to physical confinement or restraint and/or
- The employee or through some other person by words or conduct places the person receiving the threat in reasonable fear that the threat will be carried out.

Categories of harassment in the course of employment/consultancy may include:

- Bullying: Physical and psychological harassing behaviour perpetrated against another person, by one or more employees directly or through others, through: deliberately wrongly blaming for mistakes, making unreasonable demands, excessively harsh criticism, breaking rules arbitrarily, threatening job loss, causing delay in legal dues.
- Psychological/Group psychological harassment: This humiliating or abusive behaviour lowers another person's self-esteem or causes him/her torment. This can take the form of verbal comments, actions or gestures. Falling into this category are harassment's such as workplace mobbing, and gang stalking which is a form of community mobbing and organized stalking combined.
- Caste Based Harassment: The targeting of persons because of their caste. The harassments include words, deeds, and actions that are specifically designed to make the target feel degraded due to their caste.
- Religious harassment: Verbal, psychological or physical harassment is used against targets because they choose to practice a specific religion.
- Stalking: The unauthorized following and surveillance of an individual, to the extent that the person's privacy is unacceptably intruded upon, and the victim fears for his safety. A person who, without lawful authority, wilfully or maliciously engages in a course of conduct that would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated or harassed, and that actually causes the victim to feel terrorized,
- Hate speech: comments provably false or irrelevant which have the effect of stirring up hate towards a particular group
- Sexual harassment: According to The Supreme Court of India's definition, sexual harassment is any unwelcome sexually determined behaviour, such as:
 - Physical contact and advances
 - A demand or request for sexual favours
 - Sexually coloured remarks
 - Showing pornography
 - Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.(It includes such unwelcome sexually determined behaviour through action, speech, phone calls, text messages and e-mails (whether directly or by implication as)).

Any case of Sexual Harassment will be dealt under Policy against Sexual Harassment at Workplace adopted by Rozi Roti Foundation.

5. Equality and Diversity

- f) Avoid any fraud with the intent to cheat, trick, steal, deceive or lie, which is dishonest and in most cases criminal. Intentional acts of fraud are subject to strict disciplinary action, including dismissal and possible civil/criminal action against the concerned defaulter.

8. Transparency

Rozi Roti Foundation seeks to discharge its functions in a transparent manner. As part of Rozi Roti Foundation employees are expected to demonstrate this through:

- a) Reporting official misconduct, including fraud and corruption. This includes reporting suspected wrongful acts as laid out in the Whistle Blowing policy.
- b) Declining acceptance of gifts, lavish entertainment or other benefits from partners, or competitors. Acceptance of small gifts not valued higher than INR 500/- such as pens, desk dairies, calendars, etc. may be accepted.
- c) It is unacceptable to directly or indirectly offer, pay, solicit or accept any kind of inducements or bribes. Any attempted transaction of this nature should immediately be reported to the Line manager/HR Manager/ Managing Director.

9. Declaration of Interest

No Rozi Roti Foundation staff member will be involved in the award of any contract, project, and employment or will promote any company or person if they have any financial or personal interest, in such activity. Staff are required to declare such interest to his/her supervisor and HR in writing for determining whether there is a potential clash of interest or not.

10. Political Affiliation

- a) In order to preserve Rozi Roti Foundation's reputation as a non-political organization, staff must seek the Managing Director's permission before agreeing to undertake any political activity. Written approval must be obtained from the Managing Director (who will have been briefed by the appropriate Manager) before any member of staff agrees to their name being put forward for adoption as a prospective candidate for election to either a local or national political forum, or if they accept a formal office which may be seen by Rozi Roti Foundation to be controversial. (For example, Chairperson, Treasurer, Secretary or agent in any party). Managing Director, in consultation with the Board of Directors will determine which posts would be controversial in the national context.
- b) Any time-off approved in support of pre-election activity will normally be taken as unpaid leave.
- c) Any staff member elected or appointed to political office may be required to resign immediately from Rozi Roti Foundation. This will depend upon the profile of the post in the local or national context and the time commitment required carrying out the duties of the office. Specific ruling on the above will be given at the time that approval to stand is granted by Managing Director
- d) Rozi Roti Foundation's name must not be used by anyone in seeking political office.

11. Religious Affiliation

No Rozi Roti Foundation staff member should be involved in supporting any particular religious group or community and should behave in an impartial and non-partisan way under all circumstances.

12. Confidentiality and Integrity of Information Including Financial Information

- a) Staff is required to use Rozi Roti Foundation information in a responsible manner and not disclose any confidential information without prior permission from their respective Managers
- b) Before making any statement, or broadcast, or publishing any article disclosing details of their experience with Rozi Roti Foundation, staff in Rozi Roti Foundation across the country should contact the HR manager. 13. Intellectual property

Intellectual property is a generic term that includes inventions, creative writings and designs. If these items are created as part of a staff member's normal course of employment, then, as a rule, they belong to Rozi Roti Foundation. Legal advice should be sought to obtain the correct interpretation of intellectual property before any exceptions are agreed.

14. Right of Search

Entering Rozi Roti Foundation's property constitutes consent to searches and inspections. If an individual is suspected of violating this policy, he or she may be asked to submit to a search or inspection at any time. Rozi Roti Foundation retains the right to search members of staff, where reasonable grounds exist. This would normally be undertaken in the presence of another staff member of the same sex as the person being searched and a witness, who will be nominated by the person being searched. There will be no infringement of civil liberties. If the staff member refuses to be searched, management reserves the right to refer the matter to the police. If the result of the search yields evidence to support the manager's suspicions, relevant disciplinary procedures will be instituted. Searches can also be conducted of lockers, desks, workstations, vehicles, and equipment.

15. Assault / Threatening Behaviour

Physical or verbal assault by a staff member on any person on Rozi Roti Foundation premises, or with people in the workplace and people associated professionally with Rozi Roti Foundation, whilst carrying out Rozi Roti Foundation business will be construed as gross misconduct necessitating appropriate disciplinary action, leading to dismissal if warranted.
